MACQUARIE HOME STAY WINS SMALL BUSINESS AWARD

Macquarie Home Stay has won the the prestigious Roy Butler MP, Independent Member for Barwon Small Business Award at the 2025 Community Achievement Awards of New South Wales and the ACT. With hundreds of nominations in total, Macquarie Home Stay won the Award from a strong field of community contributors.

The winners were announced at an Awards Gala Presentation Dinner at the Shangri-La Sydney on Saturday 29th November 2025. The awards were hosted by 7NEWS Presenter Michael Usher.

350 guests gathered from across the State to celebrate New South Wales and the ACT's high achievers, including The Hon Stephen Kamper MP, Minister for Minister for Lands and Property.

Macquarie Home Stay of Dubbo (MHS) is committed to transforming regional healthcare access and wellbeing. MHS is a not-for-profit accommodation facility that supports patients and families from across rural and regional NSW who travel for medical treatment. Entirely self-funded, MHS reduces the emotional and financial strain of accessing healthcare by offering affordable, compassionate accommodation. Since opening, MHS has hosted over 13,000 bed nights annually, raised more than $600,000 through community fundraising, and engaged over 300 volunteers through programs like Friends of MHS and its guest concierge service. Their 2025 completion of the CWA of NSW Guesthouse, a 26-room facility supporting cancer patients, earned a Master Builders Association Award.
